Hong Kong’s strategic location and well developed infrastructure make it a premier transportation and logistics hub. During her visit to Singapore, Ms Eva Cheng, the Secretary for Transport and Housing, Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR), will share with you what Hong Kong is doing to maintain and enhance its competitiveness as Asia’s transportation and logistics hub.

Ms Cheng was appointed the Secretary for Transport and Housing in July 2007. Prior to this appointment, she was the Permanent Secretary for Economic Development. She had also served as the Commissioner for Tourism and held senior postings in the Commerce, Industry and Technology Bureau, the Central Policy Unit, Financial Secretary’s Office, Transport Branch, Education and Manpower Branch and the Standing Commission on Civil Service Salaries and Conditions of Service.
